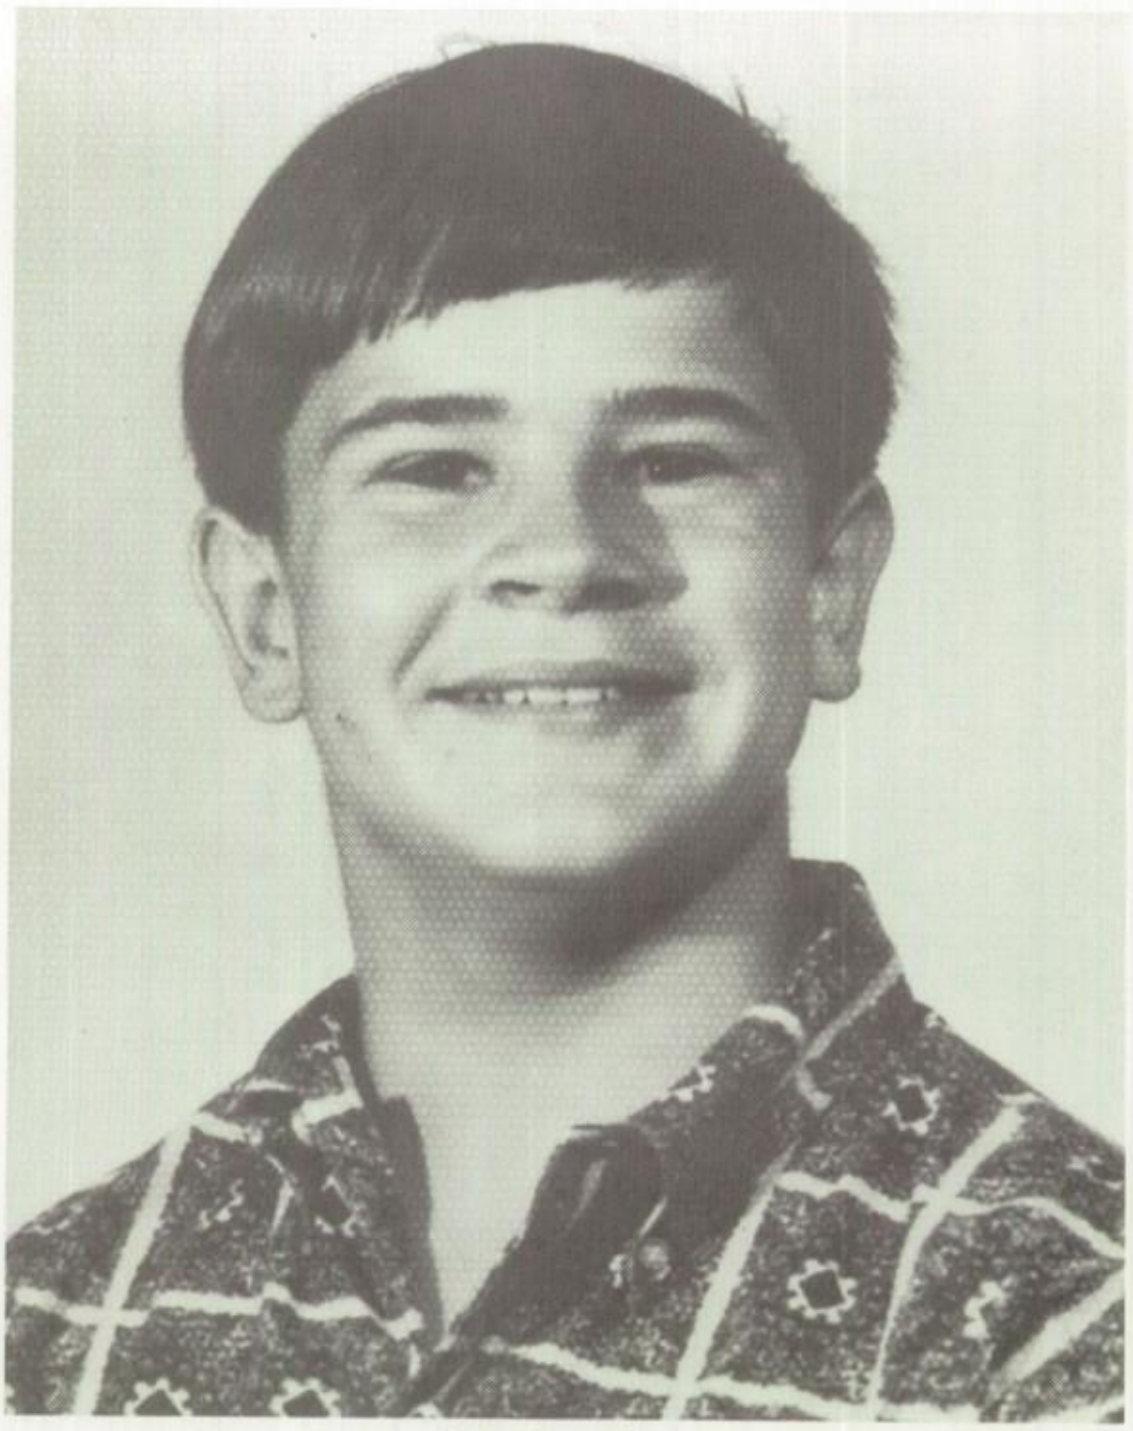
The Future of the Earth Is in

Our Hands. How Shall We Decide?

Gone but Never Forgotten



Martin Lasher

April 26, 1955--June 29, 1969

O HAPPY SOUL

O happy soul, be thankful now, and rest!
Heaven is a goodly land;
And God is love; and those he loves are blest;
Now thou dost understand
The least thou hast is better than the best
That thou didst hope for; now upon thine eyes
The new life opens fair;
Before thy feet the blessed journey lies
Through homelands everywhere;
And heaven to thee is all a sweet surprise.

Dedication Plays an Important Part

These people help with the daily functions of our school. Our librarian, Miss Gentry, assists students with their work in the library. Mrs. Williams, the school nurse, aids students in keeping healthy. Our athletic director, Mr. Joe LaGrange, keeps the school active in sports. The office girls are students who work as assistants in the main office, the health office, and the guidance office.

Pupils Use Their Hands and Minds in Projects

Students are encouraged greatly by our art teacher, Mr. Hay, whose responsibility is to teach the students to express their thoughts into being. One of the many subjects the students are able to participate in is ceramics. This course enables the students to take pieces of ordinary clay and turn them into beautiful sculpture.

Students are given the training they need to perform such skills as operating and repairing small motors, drawing blueprints, and triangles in the Industrial Arts classes. Mr. Pullen is the instructor.

Languages Lead to Better Communications

Mr. Gray and Mr. Scifres work to help the junior high students achieve an acceptable standard of speech and composition, so as to improve their abilities in English. Mrs. Gondring teaches senior literature, which provides a cultural background of our English language. Mr. Banschbach teaches the high school students French. This foreign language helps the students in being more broad-minded in the languages spoken all over the world.

Yearbook Staff Works for Successful Edition

The Perry Scope Staff publishes each year a yearbook to capture the events of the school year for us to remember in our hearts for the future years to come. The staff works as a team to cover every category. This year Anna Howell was editor, aided by the co-editor, Jane Flamion. Susan Bryant and Ellen Jones worked on advertising, and Betty Kunard handled the activities section. Mary Goldman and Cynthia Lynch captured all the sports news. Darlene Keilman was business manager, and Marietta Hubert worked in circulation. Mr. Schnell is the sponsor.

Newspaper Staff Publishes Monthly School Happenings

The Serodommoc Staff works each month to bring us all the past events. It publishes in the newspaper the poetry written by the Journalism Club to inform us of the talents our students possess. All the sports events are covered along with all club news. The elementary news is also written up in the paper. Like all newspapers, each issue also contains a human-interest story.

In bringing us the news, the staff has several reporters, who scout around and make sure nothing is missed. The editor, Shirley Flamion, and co-editor, Kevin LaMar, put it all together with the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Luckenbaugh.

The Bands Expand Their Musical Talents

This year the bands had many occasions to use their talents. The senior band performed at the home football games, and the pep band performed at the home basketball games. All bands marched in many parades including Oakland City Fall Festival Parade, Paoli Christmas Parade, Cannelton Christmas Parade, Tell City Christmas Parade, Peace Parade, and Dogwood Parade at Tell City. They entertained the public with Christmas and Spring concerts. Several of the members entered the solo contest, receiving eleven firsts and four seconds. The bands competed in a band contest at Loogootee and at the end of the school year provided the music for commencement.

The theme for the 1973 induction ceremonies of the National Honor Society was "Somewhere Over The Rainbow". This theme suggests that what one finds at the end of the rainbow is in direct proportion to the degree he has fulfilled his purpose in life. Ten sophomores were inducted as probationary members for one year, while the sixteen juniors have become permanent members. The five seniors were given the official rose and pin of the nationwide society.

Dramatics Club Uses Its Ingenuity

"She Was A Lazy Witch," was a play put on in the Fall that told the story of three witches slowly tiring of life in Scotland and fly across the ocean and centuries to modern New York City. The three witches were played by Roma Warford, Pat Terry, and Barbara Lasher. Augusta Howard played the part of the maid while John Rogier acted as a client. Kent Peter, detective, caught the three witches for income tax invasion.

"One of Us," a mystery of a woman murdered and everyone in the house suspected each other. It was a surprise to all to find that the aunt, played by Kathy Taylor, was the murderer. The cast included Kathy Taylor, Tom Gibson, Jennifer Etienne, Mary Goldman, Steve Jarboe, and Kathy Backer.

for a Good Performance in the Plays

"Mr. Snoop Is Murdered" was a play put on in the Spring. This play was about a disc jockey who was murdered and suspects were interrogated. The cast consisted of Don George, Paul Malone, Tom Gibson, Pam Scheler, Kent Peter, and Claudia Howell.

"Don't Tell A Soul" was the second play put on this Spring. It was about the gossip that goes on in a powder room during a dance. Stories were blown all out of proportion. The cast of this play included Pat Terry, Kathy Backer, Jenny Etienne, Kathy Harpenau, Diana Masterson, Barbara Lasher, and Roma Warford. Others helping behind stage were Mary Kaye Graves, Patty Peter, Debbie Etienne, Sheila LaGrange, and Gayle James.

A Victory Reflects the Queen's Elegance

P.C.'s 1972-73 Basketball Queen
Susan Bryant

A victory reflected the queen's elegance as the Commodores won over South Central, 57-49. Susan Bryant was crowned queen between the B-team and Varsity games by Don George, the team captain. A capacity crowd witnessed the event, and the new queen was saluted by the students with a cheer, which was led by the cheerleaders. The theme of "Peace" was carried throughout, with the colors of green, white, and gold.

P.C. Comes Through Against North Daviess

Perry Central ended their 1972 football season with an 18-12 defeat by Haubstadt, which left their record at 1-7. The Commodores Football record may not be impressive as far as the win and loss record, but for a new sport at Perry Central this team probably showed more over all balance than any team in the short history of Commodore Football.

School records that were set this season are as follows: Mike Carter setting two individual records, most yards rushing with 537 yards; and the best kick off return average, with 17.6 yards per carry. The toal team's rushing yards was broken this season with a record of 1,416 yards on the ground.

The players receiving special recognition this season by their team members were: Mike Carter, junior, voted as the best back; Mike Howell, senior, voted as the best lineman; Dan Sommer, senior, received the best defense award; Mike Howell also voted the team's most inspirational player; and Lee Pugh the team's most valuable player.

1972-73 VARSITY BASKETBALL SEASON IN REVIEW

NOVEMBER: Don George, 6-8 Senior, sidelined with a knee injury, Coach Guth started five Juniors. P.C. was shelled in the season opener by a much more experienced Winslow team. But the Commodores bounced back to whip Oolitic.
DECEMBER: This was Ray Niehaus' month, as he hit for 38, 25, and 20 points in the three wins against Otwell, Dubois, and South Central. The Commodores lost a well-played game to Lanesville by two points. In the Holiday Tourney, P.C. lost the opener to Tell City, but bounced back to defeat Cannelton in the consolation game. Don George hit for a season high of 23 points against Cannelton.
JANUARY: This was the Commodores' best month. With wins over Cannelton, Tecumseh, North Harrison, and Marengo, they extended their winning streak to six games. The North Harrison game was the biggest win of the season as four men scored in double figures. The win against Marengo was won on a baseline jumper by Jim Hubert. January ended with a crash as Niehaus broke his ankle.
FEBRUARY: Despite George's 23 points in the Leavenworth game, P.C. lost by the score of 68-66. They also dropped to highly ranked Tell City for the second time. Then P.C. lost to Forest Park; not only did they lose the game, but they also lost George for the remainder of the season. A loss to Heritage Hills moved their losing streak to five. The Commodores whipped Tunnelton in the final game of the season which left their record at 11-9. Ray Niehaus and Don George were selected to the all-conference team.

Sectional '73—A Little More Luck . . .?

SECTIONAL ACTION 1973: After drawing Forest Park, and with Niehaus' cast removed, we had hopes of putting together a good game against the Rangers. However, 1972-73 was evidently not the year for the Commodores as Forest Park defeated P.C. 81-40. Sophomore Robert Flamion was the bright spot for P.C. as he scored 10 points in a relief role and, consequently, was named Honorable Mention All-Sectional. With 9 of the 10 men on the sectional team returning next season, we are very optimistic and are setting our goals very high for 1973-74.
